HOW THIS WORKS

- Read at your own speed. Each quest unlocks at a point in the story. Do it when you get there. Already past one? Do it anyway.
- About ten minutes each. Drawing, writing, puzzles and arguments. No quizzes.
- Chapters, not page numbers. Editions of Treasure Island are laid out differently, so every quest tells you which chapters it covers.
- Show your grown-up each one for the stamp. If you can stump them, even better.
